Dress Code:

Southern Florida District NYI Camp is a Christian camp with a distinctly Christian atmosphere; modesty should always be the standard for dress. It is the responsibility of the sponsors from each church to model the standard of modesty & enforce the camp dress code. The intent of the dress code is to provide an equitable dress code for all campers that will encourage modesty above legalism. Parents and church leaders are urged to see that only clothing that meets these policies and regulations be brought to camp

General Appropriateness:

Apparel may not display or promote alcohol, controlled substances, or inappropriate language or pictures.

Modesty:

Campers may not wear apparel that exposes the midriff, is extremely tight-fitting, low-cut shirts, or shorts that are shorter than fingertip length with arms placed by your side. Public Display of Affection (PDA): Will not be tolerated and acceptable at this camp. If you have a question referring to this topic please ask an Adult Counselor or Director. Plainly, don't put yourself in a place of contempt. Parents will be notified of any incidents involving this issue.

Swimming:

Modest swimming suits and lifejackets are to be worn while swimming. A swim cover-up must be worn over two-piece swimming suits when out of the water. Males are to wear t-shirts while out of the water. If a camper violates the dress code, they will be asked to change into clothing that falls within the dress code
